Also appearing will be Hip Hop legend TELA, Badboy's own Artist/Producer Miltickit and Tocarra Hamilton along with Nancy Denise (BGC)

The Hype Magazine, announced today their "Meet and Greet" series kickoff in Atlanta, GA February 4, 2014, at Harlem Nights Ultra Lounge featuring 2x Georgia Music Awards nominee/recording artist Tocarra Hamilton, Bad Boy's own Grammy Award winning artist/producer Miltickit, Rising Rap Star K Camp, Legendary Rapper Tela and the R&B sensation Bobby V. This meet and greet will combine the official birthday party for the platinum recording artist, and the unveiling of The Hype Magazine's March cover, which Bobby V will grace. The superstar recently released a new EP entitled "Peach Moon,""¡partygoers may get a surprise performance that evening!

R&B superstar Bobby V's newest musical endeavor is best described with three words: Vibes, Moods, and Moments. "Peach Moon" combines the vibes of a Motown inspired jam session, the unpredictable moods of love and the defining moments that shape our everyday lives. Backed by a full band and showcasing his love for playing the piano, "Peach Moon" sets the stage for Bobby's most honest and most inspired project to date."I'm not chasing trends with this EP or trying to emulate what's on the radio. This project is all about a feeling, a vibe."

The Hype Magazine, founded in 2002 by Jameelah "Just Jay" Wilkerson, is steadily growing as a brand and respected entertainment media outlet, covering news from Hip-Hop to Hollywood. Boasting nearly 300,000 digital subscribers and 2 million unique visitors per month to its online properties, print distribution became one of the demands of The Hype Magazine readers and fans.

“The 11-year mark is significant because we have history. The magazine has gone through changes and we have made it through the first 10 years. This is the time where you start to build respect amongst your peers and doors start to open, which they have,“ says The Hype Magazine CEO and Publisher, Jameelah "Just Jay" Wilkerson.
